Services

Our Corporate & Commercial Law Practice, has the resources and experience to offer a full range of commercial and corporate legal services to clients ranging from established multinational companies to individuals and start-ups operating across a wide spectrum of industries and business sectors. Through our understanding of the commercial, legal and regulatory pressures and sensitivities which impact upon corporate transactions, our team is ideally placed to provide effective advice.

In many cases, we serve as general counsel for corporations and represent them in all aspects of their corporate life – from the original establishment of the enterprise through all aspects of its evolution and operation. We are involved in all aspects of corporate governance and are active in corporate transactions – mergers, acquisitions, and joint ventures, as well as change of control transactions. We also counsel businesses in connection with their ongoing contractual relationships with domestic and international customers, suppliers, and distributors.
